

'Meeh-an-Dad'

Another great turn out and heaps of fun at Meeh-an Dad. With the cooler weather we stayed indoors. Dads, Step-dads, brothers, Uncles and Grandads got involved in everything on offer; a variety of construction, marble runs, craft, board games, puzzles and books. The adults worked and played with their kids supporting the growth of creative, inquisitive, and strategic minds.

After play time, we enjoyed delicious chicken and vegetable soup and quiche prepared by the Neighbourhood Centre followed by jelly and ice-cream. We finished the evening with the story 'What the Ladybird Heard' and then got excited and rowdy all over again with the 'tug-o-war' to finish.

We sincerely wish to thank the men who participate in Meeh-an-Dad. Your involvement is unique and special and clearly means the world to your children.
